

Mother's Day Greetings From Nepal

May 5th (2008 English calendar this year) is Mother's Day in Nepal especially for Hindu (Mata tirtha Aunsi).

On this day all go to see their Mother with some gift like clothes and goods as Mother's choice.

When people are old they hope their sons and daughters will come to see them. Elder people are most happy when receiving gifts from their bottom of the heart.

Above is a picture of a 90 year old woman. She is very happy to be honored by her son in law, daughter and her elder sister's son and family.

If one has no Mother they go to holy place called Mata tirtha (8 km west from Kathmandu) and they bath in the river and pray for their late Mother's good carnation.

Also, some people go to the ageing home and give fruits and sweets in their late Mother's memory.

Picture taken by Manohar Upreti.