

WEAAD 2008 from Shropshire County, United Kingdom

To Mark World Elder Abuse Awareness Day 2008 Shropshire Partners in Care (SPIC), Shropshire County Council and Telford & Wrekin Council raised over £1190 hosting 'A Good Night Out' at Shrewsbury Football Club on June 20th with all profits going to Action on Elder Abuse.

BBC Radio Shropshire's Jim Hawkins welcomed over 150 people to Shrewsbury Football Club following opening comments by Liz Nicholson (Interim Director, Community Services, Shropshire County Council) and Councillor Stuart West (Older People's Champion).

Guests enjoyed entertainment from 4-piece band The Delicate Strangers, belly dancing with Jude and Mehndi, St Oswalds Singers from Oswestry, quiz, raffle, disco and buffet.

Photographs from 'A Good Night Out'.

Mrs Debbie Price
and Mrs Carolyn Griffiths

Mrs Liz Nicholson (Interim Director, Community Services, Shropshire County Council), Councillor Stuart West (Older People's Champion), Miss Karen Littleford (Adult Protection Training and Development Worker, Shropshire Partners in Care), Mrs Karen Kalinowski, (Head of Performance & Standards, Telford and Wrekin Council) Mr Jim Hawkins (BBC Radio Shropshire) and Ms Judith McGillivray (Principal Officer Adult Protection, Telford and Wrekin Council)

The Delicate Strangers - Mrs Vanya Anderson, Mr Glynn Talbot, Ms Sarah Hollinshead – Bland, Ms Anji Hollinshead – Bland and Mr Graham Anderson

Back Row (L - R)
Mrs Tracey Geary,
Mrs Kim Benniman,
Miss Lorraine Edwards and
Miss Jenny Edwards
Front Row (L –R)
Mrs Stacey Rowson and
Mrs Alison Warterhouse

Submitted by,
Karen Littleford.
Adult Protection Training and Development Worker.

Shropshire Partners in Care Ltd. (S.P.I.C.) "Setting the Standards"

Tel: 01743 860011

Fax: 01743 860088

Email: klittleford@spic.co.uk

Website: <http://www.spic.co.uk/>

Shropshire Partners in Care Ltd is a not for profit company registered as a company limited with guarantee.
Registered in England and Wales, N^o. 4660475.