

WEAAD 2009 Report

Shropshire Partners in Care and Shropshire Council

'Another Good Night Out'

The Four Crosses Pub
Bicton, Shrewsbury, Shropshire, United Kingdom

Shropshire Partners in Care (SPIC) and Shropshire Council raised £344 hosting 'Another Good Night Out' at The Four Crosses, Bicton to mark World Elder Abuse Awareness day 2009. All donations went to the National Action on Elder Abuse.

Peter Clarke, Acting Adult Protection Manager, Shropshire Council and Karen Littleford, Adult Protection Training & Development Worker, SPIC celebrate £344 raised for the Action on Elder Abuse Charity.

Sarah Hollinshead - Bland (Shropshire Council) welcomed over 50 people to The Four Crosses, Bicton. Guests enjoyed a curry and karaoke session with Deb Fritzl, Adelphi Care Services setting a very high standard as the first singer to take to the stage. A raffle took place with prizes donated by Wrexham and Shropshire Trains, Acton Scott Historic Working Farm, Ironbridge Gorge Museums, M-Viron Ludlow, Rackhams, JLA, Morrisons and The Old Market Hall.

Karen Littleford (Adult Protection Training & Development Worker for SPIC), event organiser said, "Once again we have been overwhelmed by the support from generous local businesses we had some superb raffle prizes donated, thank you for your amazing support. The evening was an informal opportunity to acknowledge that elder abuse is not acceptable and we are working with partner agencies to prevent it. We look forward to keeping this very important issue on the agenda for the next year in order to continue raising awareness about elder abuse".

From L – R Anji Hollinshead – Bland, Kim Walshaw, John Walshaw, Deb Fritzl and Phil Fritzl