An introduction to Enduring Powers of Guardianship and Advance Health Directives

Enduring Powers of Guardianship (EPGs) and Advance Health Directives (AHDs) give adults with capacity, the power to direct how personal, lifestyle and treatment decisions would be made if they lost the capacity to make such decisions themselves.

- how an EPG and/or AHD can help people plan for their future
- what people should consider in deciding whether or not to make an AHD and/or EPG
