ELDER ABUSE: a worldwide issue

Sixth International Conference of the International Network for the Prevention of Elder Abuse (INPEA)

17th June 2011
Herbert Smith LLP
Exchange House, Primrose Street,
London, EC2A 2HS

When World Elder Abuse Awareness Day (WEAAD) was launched by INPEA six years ago, it definitely was an idea whose time had come. Activities that raise awareness about the evils of elder abuse and/or that celebrate the resilience and contributions of seniors now routinely occur around the world on June 15. WEAAD has caught the imagination of and has been embraced by NGOs, government agencies and individuals in many countries.

In 2008, INPEA in partnership with the Canadian Network for Prevention of Elder Abuse, hosted a very successful 2-day conference in Ottawa. In 2009 the official INPEA WEAAD event was held in Paris, in partnership with ALMA, the French national elder abuse prevention organisation, just prior to the World Congress of the International Association of Gerontology and Geriatrics.

This year INPEA and Action on Elder Abuse are organising the conference for the first time in London, in collaboration with a range of key partner organisations who work with older people. This will be a major international and national event and one that is funded to attract a maximum number of attendees.

And, if you join INPEA or AEA today, you can take advantage of the reduced conference fee.
