

INTERNATIONAL EXPERT'S CONFERENCE OF ELDER ABUSE PREVENTION AND PROTECTION

on the occasion of the commemoration of World Elder Abuse Awareness Day 2019

POLAND, Cracow 14-15th June 2019

Organizers:

Pedagogical University of Cracow

The International Network for the Prevention of Elder Abuse (INPEA)

Speakers and session

Among the guests are distinguished specialists from around the world, expert representatives from the universities, Human Rights Institutes, and European and global Civil Society organizations and older persons, themselves.

Sessions:

- Combating elder abuse in the context of Convention of Human Rights of Older Persons;
- Ministerial panel composed EU countries;
- International systemic solutions - prevention and protection;

Who should attend: We wish to invite Polish and international representatives of social (older persons) policies, NHRIs, NGOs and universities to participate in the Conference and discussions.

To enable the exchange of insights and free discussion, a simultaneous translation of all the presentations will be provided

The registration via conference website

www.weaad2019.up.krakow.pl

Contact Us: experts-conference@up.krakow.pl

Registration deadline: 31 May 2019

Sponsors:

The International Network for the Prevention of Elder Abuse (INPEA)
Pedagogical University of Cracow
UN Department of Economic and Social Affairs (DESA)
Cracow City

The aims and objectives is the exchange of insights and experiences related to the prevention and protection of older persons against any forms of abuse, violence, negligence, Ageism, and discrimination, as well as learning about the international system solutions and popularization of the best prevention and intervention practices.

